NOTEWORTHY ACTIVITIES:

Arson on W Franklin St which is still under investigation

A traffic stop resulted in a subject fleeing the scene. He was apprehended on Eastern Ave and arrested for multiple violations. It was determined that he had outstanding warrants in Franklin, Cumberland and Adams Counties.

Off. Bradley has begun working with PSP on an upcoming "Fish with a Cop" event in October. A similar event was held last year and was successful and we look forward to doing so again this year.

Domestic Assault on S Carlisle St resulting in Agg. Assault and Strangulation charges. The victim in this case was reluctant to come forward, but fortunately she found the strength to do so. Any person who is being battered needs to realize that we are here to help them.

The latest and greatest Triennial Old Home Week event is now behind us. I want to thank the Officers who gave many hours to police the events associated with the event, as well as the Public Works employees of the Borough. Finally, this week is not possible without a group of dedicated volunteer RHC FIRE POLICE, who give a great deal of themselves to make sure the community has a great time. Thank you to all.
